

Indian Institute of Tourism and Travel Management, Camp at Bodh Gaya, is an extension of IITTM, Bhubaneswar Centre and is at present running from the premises of SIHM Bodh Gaya. The Bodh Gaya camp has been opened to start short term skill development training programmes in six foreign languages initially i.e. Korean, Thai, Chinese, Japanese, Burmese and Sri Lankan etc. mainly to cater to the requirement of inbound tourists in the state of Bihar. A short term skill development training programme in Chinese and Thai languages has been completed and the training programme in Japanese and Thai languages is likely to start shortly. There is a plan to start the short term training programmes in skill development for other foreign languages also at a later stage at IITTM camp, Bodh Gaya.
